

A SWELL CINEMA PRODUCTION
CO-PRODUCED BY LAURA HARRISON & CHARLOTTE LAGARDE

Voting in ★ America

9 short documentaries about why some people don't vote
and how others are trying to change their minds

Films by: Christiane Badgley, Aiyana Elliott & Dick Dahl, Charlene Gilbert, Josh Kurz & Chris Metzler, Anne Lewis, Laura Varela & Heather Courtney, Lily Ng & Lee Gardner, Tom Shepard, Johnny Symons and Francesca Talenti.

"Truly engaging. Real feelings, real people, anecdotal and not preachy. The featured people were able to communicate succinctly about voting, and always in a culturally relevant way."

Jennifer Bonardi, Democracy Matters

"Powerful! They demonstrated how far advocates and activists must reach in order to really make change."

Lisa Prosienski, Common Cause

"A very good example of how the electoral system in this country is not as democratic as people think."

Laura Mullins, ACORN

"It will inspire voters to vote and motivate citizens to volunteer for get out the vote efforts"

Dean Liscum, GOTV coordinator for Ft. Bend County

Funding provided by: James & Marina Harrison, The Ben & Jerry's Foundation, The Nu Lambda Trust, Karen & Bill Froming, Victor Romero & Michael Dunn, The Gill Foundation, The Lagarde Charitable Trust, Don & Gayle Nathe, Mr. & Mrs. James W. Growney, The LEF Foundation, Vivie Lee & Kate Goka, Suzanne Lampert & Barbara Brenner, Lee Ann Slinkard, The Blue Mountain Center, Friends Committee on National Legislation, and many individual donors.

Developed in association with the Independent Television Services (ITVS) with funding provided by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB).

For more information: www.votinginamerica.org